Married Women, Please Take Notice

Among the improvements which Postmaster Marigold is instituting for the betterment of the local postal service will be a directory of married women. A letter addressed "Mrs. William H. Smith" for instance, would be easily delivered at the residence of her husband. But a letter for the same lady addressed "Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Smith" would be difficult to deliver, and many letters come addressed to the given name of married women which are hard to deliver.

Beginning about April 9th the carriers will deliver a pink card to the houses on their routes, the card used for changes of addresses, and all ladies will be requested to write their own name in full, given name, middle name and husband's surname, as before cited as an example "Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Smith." If all the housewives in the city will take the trouble to fill them out and sign them, it will be the means of their receiving many letters that would otherwise be delayed, and perhaps never delivered. A card index will be made of the cards received, and an attempt made to keep it up to date, once it is inaugurated.

The gross receipts of the local post office for the year ending March 31 amounted to $308,395.12, an increase of $20,986.10 over the business of the corresponding period a year ago. Upon the business done in this period the salaries of the fiscal year beginning July 1 are based. The increase this year, to have brought larger salaries, should have been approximately $60,-000. There was little expectation of reaching the required figure. Postmaster Marigold completed his report for the year ending March 31, today. It shows a normal growth in all departments. In connection with this work, the postmaster is about to inaugurate a number of new features to facilitate the business of the office, one of which will be a card index for married women residents.

Postmaster Marigold reports that the amount received as deposits of excess postal revenues from other post offices in Connecticut, all of whom deposit such excess of receipts beyond convention. Six delegates are for their expenses at the Bridgeport post
